In acknowledgement of your letter dated 2 September 1948 Foreign Broadcast Information Service has used "World Radio Handbook" in the past to advantage and would certainly be interested in receiving the Summer Edition published last May.

It is likely that you would find one or more of the following FBIS publications of considerable interest. They are:

1. Long and Medium Wave Broadcasting Stations of the World according to Frequency.
2. Short Wave Broadcasting Stations of the World according to Frequency.
3. Broadcasting Stations of the World according to Country and City.

It occurs to me that a reciprocal exchange of material might be of value to both of us. If this proposal is acceptable to you I shall be happy to mail you a copy of one or all of the publications specified above on receipt of the May issue of "World Radio Handbook".

Your efforts to aid the development of international broadcasting and popularize international reception are highly commendable in a field which has not received its proper amount of attention.
